Dear Sirs:

Thank you for your order letter of March 7, 2005. The above-identified application was entered into the U.S. national phase on March 17, 2005, with declaration, at the small entity rate.

Pursuant to your instructions, small entity status was claimed. Thus, we understand that you are familiar with all rules relating to the requirements for small entity status and that you warrant to us that this application qualifies thereunder for small entity status.

Using the references forwarded with the instruction letter of March 7, 2005, we prepared an Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) and filed same with the application. In case any other potentially material prior art or other potentially material information is discovered, please send copies so that we may prepare and file a further Disclosure Statement. This should specifically include all of the documents cited during any international search, and the most relevant of the prior art cited in the Background section of the present specification, if any. However, please be advised that it is no longer necessary to submit copies of the U.S. patents or published U.S. applications. We have only a three-month window from the filing date (unless the first action comes in later, in which case we have more time) to avoid the payment of a late fee, or three months from the discovery of the newly-discovered material information, so any further Disclosure Statement should be promptly prepared and filed within three (3) months of its discovery.

As soon as we receive the official filing receipt, we will forward the filing receipt to you, and will also submit the assignment for recordation.

We acknowledge receipt of the electronic copy of the application, which we have successfully copied to our hard drive.

Copies of the papers that we have prepared and filed are enclosed, as well as our debit memorandum for services.

Sincerely,

Roger L. Browdy
